About the Pediatric Brain Tumor Foundation:

PBTF is the world's largest non-governmental source of funding for childhood brain tumor research, which is dedicated to not only eradicating this disease, but to providing support to families. Its educational resources deliver comfort and hope to families in need of information, and its college scholarship program gives brain tumor survivors a boost for the future. For more information: www.pbtfus.org

About CHAMP Homes (Housing for All Corp):

Four CHAMP Homes provide affordable, supportive family-style living to a co-ed inter-generational forty-five member family. CHAMP Homes offer flexible, personal care to those with no other housing resources available, as they work towards educational, employment and personal goals. For more information: www.champhomes.org

About Pan-Mass Challenge:

The Pan-Massachusetts Challenge is the nation's original fundraising bike-a-thon and today raises more money than any other athletic fundraising event in the country. Doctors at Dana-Farber Cancer Institute join their patients as teammates, riding for a unified goal. Over 200 PMC riders are cancer survivors. Thousands of riders and volunteers have lost loved ones to the disease. Still more ride in honor of those in treatment. For more information: www.pmc.org
